

Welcome to the 32nd Potty Festival
5th – 6th July 2025

Sunday 6th July

For those staying at Kelling Heath:

- Breakfast will be available from the food vendor starting at 7am in the Village Square.
- We do not supply any buses on Sunday so you will have to make your own way to Sheringham. Either in your own vehicle or by public transport.

You must vacate Kelling Heath by 10:00am on your checkout day unless you have taken advantage of Kelling Heath's late checkout offer (in which case, follow their instructions). If you need to relocate a vehicle we suggest you use one of the Sheringham car parks, at least three of which will be operational on both Saturday and Sunday: Station Approach Car Park, Morris Street Car Park and Cliff Road Car Park.

Donations

Your wonderful Potty Festival committee has been working hard as usual to bring you this year's festival. We are still struggling to build reliable income streams, and our costs continue to rise. Please continue to give your generous donations, to ensure the festival can continue! We have volunteers with buckets, as usual; we also now have a card machine to accommodate those of you who no longer carry cash. Finally there is a crowdfunding page at <http://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/pottyfestival>- many thanks to those of you who have already made online donations, in particular New St George, T'Owd Man Border Morris and CrossKey Clog.

Finally...

Please refer to the separate Dance Order sheet to find out where your dance spots are.

There is also a Procession sheet which will indicate which van to use to have your belongings ferried to the correct location, and where you will be in the procession.

HAVE A GREAT POTTY FESTIVAL!
Next year's festival will be on 4th – 5th July 2026.
