

Welcome to the 33rd Potty Festival

4th – 5th July 2026

The official Potty Festival campsite for 2026 is Kelling Heath Holiday Park, Weybourne, Holt, Norfolk NR25 7HW. Their phone number is 01263 588 181. The website is <https://www.kellingheath.co.uk>. For full details about the site, check out the website or contact them direct.

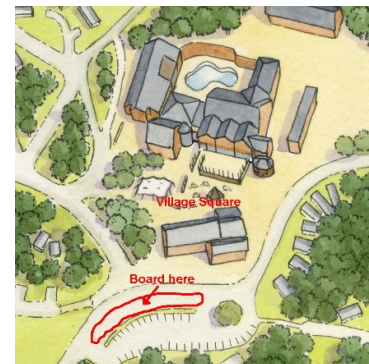

Camping Information

- The Festival Representative at Kelling Heath is Mike Ray-Jones, on 07879 201692.
- Only one accommodation per pitch please! So, one tent, one caravan or one motorhome.
- No noise on the camp site between 10pm and 7am.
- No open fires by request of Kelling Heath management. Disposable BBQs may be used provided they comply with Kelling Heath's rules and regulations. During periods of dry, warm weather, Kelling Heath does, at times, enforce a restriction on charcoal BBQ's due to the high fire risk. If there is a restriction in place this will be detailed in your pre-arrival email; full details at <https://www.kellingheath.co.uk/about/faqs/>. Bricks are available near the Blue Butterfly Field for raising your BBQ off the ground.
- Accessible toilet and shower blocks on the "Blue Butterfly Field", and between the Blue and Red fields (shown on the plan below).
- Arrive from 12 midday Friday and use the drive-thru check-in cabin.
- Dogs welcome if they are on a lead on the campsite; please mention that you're bringing a dog when you book.

Transport Information

TRANSPORT from Kelling Heath on Saturday 4th July to Sheringham (timed for the start of the procession) and return journeys

- Coaches depart Kelling Heath at 8.30am and 9.15am. Dogs are permitted on board but must be well behaved and remain on the floor. They will arrive at and depart from the layby in front of the main Kelling Heath car park, as indicated on the map to the right. Please use these coaches even if you are not taking part in the procession.

- Coaches return campers to Kelling Heath on Saturday departing from the Potty Festival bus stop at the bottom of Wyndham Street. Departure times 16:45pm and 17:30pm.
- North Norfolk Railway runs steam and diesel train services between Holt, Weybourne and Sheringham. Kelling Heath to the Kelling Heath Halt is a 6 minute walk, or 15 minutes to Weybourne Station:
For details about their Day Rover tickets visit <https://nnr.hops.org.uk/tickets/travel>.
- On Sunday 5th July, NO COACHES are provided to or from Sheringham. Please use your own or public transport.

You must vacate Kelling Heath by 10:00am on your checkout day unless you have taken advantage of Kelling Heath's late checkout offer. If you need to relocate a vehicle we suggest you use one of the Sheringham car parks. More details at <https://www.north-norfolk.gov.uk/tasks/your-community/view-car-park-charges-including-coaches/>

Ceilidh

Potty Festival has arranged a Ceilidh in the Kelling Heath Village Square on Saturday 4th July between 7.30pm and 9.30pm, featuring caller Ollie Simons with band Thoroughfare. All are welcome, including non-campers!

Quiet time in the park starts at 10.00pm.

Donations

Your Potty Festival committee has been working hard again to bring you this year's festival. We are still struggling to build reliable income streams, and our costs continue to rise. Please continue to give your generous donations, to ensure the festival can continue! We have volunteers with buckets, as usual; we also now have a card machine to accommodate those of you who no longer carry cash. Finally there is a crowdfunding page at <http://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/pottyfestival2026> - many thanks to those of you who have already made donations.

And Finally...

Please refer to the separate Dance Order document to find out where your dance spots are. We are delighted that this year we have arranged yet another dance spot (Spot 14, "Tidal Wave") to help accommodate your growing festival!

HAVE A GREAT POTTY FESTIVAL! Next year's festival will be on 3rd – 4th July 2027.
